T-slot Tables & Test Fixtures

T-slot tables on heavy support frame

We offer custom designed work tables in any size or shape. The tables are usually made of steel with T-slots machined to our customers specifications. The support frames are designed to accommodate any working height and payload and can be supplied with vibration isolators.

Elevating Tables

We offer several types of elevating tables with manual handling or automatic lifting, corrosion resistant for use in a climate chamber i. e.